THE LEDGER
is the largest daily paper printed in Louisville—over the columns and square their length.

It gives you reading matter than any other.
It is sold at the same price as any other paper except a cent a month, delivered by carrier or sent by mail.
If you are looking for the most for your money, you can get it in THE LEDGER.

Now is the time to subscribe—your eye it is a waste of time.

Circulation More Than 1,000 Daily.

The Business
Way!

The business way to advertise is to take space by the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.
We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsalable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

Where is That Banner Now?
Greenwald (1914) Review—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a banner in their processions bearing the inscription:

YOTE FOR GROVER CLEVELAND AND
$1.25 A WEEK
FOR YOUR WEEK.

A liberal reward will be paid for that banner at this office, and no question asked.

GREENHALL had out that personal grudge is a poor base for a National policy.

The country is watching now to see upon whom CLEVELAND will now try to shift the odium of the forthcoming Tariff bill.

The United States has the highest death rate from diphtheria, 490 in 100,000.
Holland and Sweden come next with 440 each.

The district of Representative HARTER, the howling Ohio Free-trade, last year gave him 2,500 plurality, gave McKINLEY 5,000 plurality this year.
Representative HARTER should begin to look around for "something just as good."

The matrimonial record has been beaten by a woman in Vanlue, O. She has buried her sixth husband, and has just consigned herself by taking her nuptials. A New York company is reported to have refused to insure his life.

The Chief of the United States Senate stationary room holds his office under the title by which he was elected year ago: "Member of quill pens," though there is but one Senator who uses a quill pen, and the Chief's duties are now quite unlike those which he first assumed.

The collecting of postage stamps has brought into existence a professional stamp repainer, who for a small fee, dexterously repairs mutilated stamps.
His specialty is restoring the margin to envelope stamps that have been cut to shape and have thus lost much of their philatelic value.

A CHICAGO BANKER
Tackled by a Crash Wire Remains $10,000 at the Point of a Revolver.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—James R. Walker, of the Tacoma Safety Deposit Vault Co., was confronted with a revolver in his handsome residence, 1736 Prairie avenue, Thursday evening, and asked to deliver over his check for $10,000.

It was at 8:30 o'clock that a man with a blonde mustache, standing about five feet nine inches, well dressed, wearing a good overcoat, walked up the front steps to his magnificent residence and rang the door-bell.

The girl came to the door in answer to the call. The man asked if Mr.
Walker was in, and, being told that he was, walked into the parlor, saying that he would like to see him.

The girl called Mr. Walker downstairs, and when he entered the room the fellow, who knew him, said:
"Good evening, Mr. Walker. I am sorry to disturb you, but I am a little hard up and came around to see if you couldn't help me out of my financial difficulties. Can't you give me some money? You have lots of it and will never miss it, while it will do me a great favor. The cold weather is hard on a man who has no money. Now, advance!"

"Well," broke in Mr. Walker, "I don't know you, and can not see any reason why I should give you any money. I can not do it."

"Yes, you will," said the fellow emphatically. "I want the money and must have it."

He drew a large revolver, and pointing it at Mr. Walker's breast, said in a loud voice: "Write me a check for $10,000, and hand it over, or I will put a hole through your heart."

Mr. Walker is a large man, and with his presence of mind thought he could cope with the would-be robber under his prevailing excitement.

The muzzle of the pistol was close to his heart, so he raised his left arm to protect himself, and knocked it away, at the same time opening the door that led to the street with the other hand.

He then gave the fellow a shove and he rolled down the steps and out on the walk, still clutching the revolver in his hand.

At that moment the door closed by Mr. Walker, while he went immediately to the telephone to notify the police station.

The man got up right away, ran down Prairie avenue and disappeared.
About 9 o'clock he was located in a room on Twenty-second street and placed under arrest. He proved to be Charles Nostrom, who has been under arrest for housebreaking.

MISSIONARIES
Must Take Chances No Far as Gresham is Concerned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Secretary Gresham is opposed to the policy of extending government protection to foreign missionaries. The fact has come out in connection with the discussion over the Hawaiian question. Around the state department one of the expressions frequently heard in justification of the administration's Hawaiian policy is that the Hawaiian revolution is "only another agitation by the missionaries and their descendants."

The fact that Secretary Gresham did not believe that the state department ought to be compelled to take cognizance of foreign missionaries was revealed with startling force to a well-known congressional committee when discussing the Hawaiian question with him two months ago on an outrage on missionaries in Asia Minor.

The secretary then and there declared personally that the government ought not to be called upon to promote foreign missions.

He said that the disciples of Mo-hammedanism had as much right to spread their religious doctrines broadcast through the land as our Christian missionaries have to go into those countries. The secretary said that if he had his own way personally he would serve notice upon the missionaries that if they chose to go to heathen countries and incur such personal risks as they do, in the work of proselyting, that they needn't expect the state department to extend any further protection to them than would be given to any other American citizen traveling abroad. The missionary question is figuring conspicuously in the Hawaiian matter. It is claimed that nearly all the American population in Hawaii is made up of children of American missionaries or their descendants.

Starving Missionary.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 25.—Thermometers in various parts of the city Friday morning ranged from 5 degrees to 25 degrees below zero, and like reports are received from all over the state, North Dakota and Manitoba. There was little wind and the sky was free from clouds, and the cold being the quiet, emphatic sort, well known in this country. Colder weather is promised for Friday night. Sank Rapids, Minn., reports 24 degrees below, and at Dar-go, N. D., 85 degrees below is reported.

Starving Missionary.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 25.—A man called Smith, but who refused to give his name, is slowly starving to death in the Fulton county jail. "Give me liberty or give me death," he says. In a crazy fit he beat a man and pleaded guilty to assault. The recorder, believing the prisoner insane, refused to fine him, but the court also refused a writ of lunacy because the man said he was a non-resident. He has not eaten for eight days.

Starving Missionary.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 25.—Gov. Le-wellyn has been taken suddenly ill at Girard on his return from a hunting trip in the northwestern Arkansas. It is thought his trouble is developing into a serious fever. Lieut. Gov. Daniels is also very sick at his home near Girard with a severe attack of malaria fever.
